NOTIFICATION

Home Market Support Training New on GeM Bid/RA GeM Analytics

“ The Government is committed to curbing corruption. One of the key aspects of this objective is to minimize Government's human transactional interface. Accordingly, public procurement is being transformed by leveraging technology such as online market places and e-tendering. The Government E-marketplace (GeM) also offers other advantages such as minimizing prices while maximizing ease, efficiency and transparency. It will help enhance processes in ways such as demand aggregation, real-time price discovery, and prompt automated payments. ”

Prime Minister Message

“ The government is committed to curb corruption.... ”

Shri Narendra Modi

Prime Minister of India

“ GeM represents our Government's firm commitment to bring greater transparency and efficiency in public procurement. ”

Smt. Nirmala Sitharaman

Minister of State for Commerce and Industry
(Independent Charge)

HOW TO REGISTER

The screenshot shows the GeM website with a blue header bar. The URL in the address bar is gem.gov.in. The header includes links for various government departments like G4, R, WILP, Arch, LIC, MIML, BEG, Accela, MAP 3D, 2016, SBI Card, Link, livestrong, SelfNutri, B Work, Flow, Polar, CAN Work, B Ideas, Help Links, and a search bar. A red circle highlights the "Login/Register" button. Below the header are logos for the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology, the Directorate General of Supplies and Disposals, Digital India, and the Make in India campaign. The main menu below the header includes Home, Market, Support, Training, New on GeM, Bid/RA, and GeM Analytics. A large central banner features a quote from Prime Minister Narendra Modi about curbing corruption, followed by a portrait of him and a "Prime Minister Message" button.
